

Terms and Conditions for International Zoom Events Prize Draw

1. Entry to this draw is open to international students studying at Western Sydney University. Employees of the University, any related corporation of the University or any agency involved in promoting this draw (and their immediate families) are ineligible to enter. Each entry must be entered in accordance with these terms and conditions. By entering this draw, each entrant agrees to be bound by these terms and conditions. The University may in its discretion refuse to award any prize to any entrant who fails to comply with these terms and conditions.
2. Entry into this draw is free.
3. To be eligible to enter this draw, all entrants must register for and attend three International Zoom Session events hosted by the International Buddy Program during Spring 2021. Eligible events can be identified by their inclusion on the International Zoom Sessions – Spring 2021 page. This is the only method of entry into this draw.
4. There is a limit of one entry per person.
5. Entrants may only enter themselves in this draw. Each entrant warrants to the University that his or her entry is his or her own and is complete and accurate.
6. This competition expires upon the conclusion of all International Zoom Session events.
7. Any entry received after expiry of the competition period is ineligible for acceptance. No responsibility is accepted for late, lost, delayed or misdirected entries. All entries become the property of the University once received, and will not be returned.
8. The winning entry will be drawn at random at the end of the competition. The winning entrants will be notified via e-mail to their registered e-mail account. The draw is being held by the Peer Programs Unit on behalf of Western Sydney University. All decisions made in relation to this prize draw are final and no correspondence will be entered into.
9. Winners of the draw will also be announced on the International Buddy Program WESTERNLife Group Page.
10. The University reserves the right to make a different prize award or no award if not satisfied with the draw process.
11. If anything occurs that prevents or hinders the University's ability to conduct the draw or to deliver the prize to the prize winner, the University may, in its absolute discretion, cancel the draw, recommence it at another time under the same terms and conditions or select another winner.
12. The University is not responsible for any incorrect or inaccurate information or other errors (whether technical or otherwise) that may occur in the course of conducting this draw. The University accepts no responsibility for any error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, communications line failure, theft or destruction or unauthorised access to or alteration of entries.
13. To the full extent permitted by law, the University will not be liable for any injury, damages, expenses, or loss whatsoever (whether direct or inconsequential) to persons or property as a result of any person entering into the draw or accepting or using the prize.
14. The University reserves the right, at any time, to verify independently the validity of any entry or claim for the prize (including, without limitation, identity and other personal details of the entrant) and to reject that entry or claim if it cannot be verified to the University's satisfaction.
15. Any entrant who submits an entry or claim for the prize that is false or does not comply with these terms and conditions, or who tampers with the draw process in any way, will be automatically disqualified.
16. The University collects personal information in order to conduct this draw and may, for this purpose, disclose that information to third parties including agents, contractors, service providers, prize suppliers and, if required, to Australian regulatory authorities. Entry to this draw is conditional on entrants providing this information and consenting to its disclosure. The University may, for an indefinite period, unless otherwise advised by an entrant, use the information for personal marketing, research, profiling and publicity purposes, including sending emails to, or telephoning, entrants. Entrants should contact the University if they wish to access, update or correct their personal information. For more information, please visit:
